Background: CTF1 (Cardiotrophin 1) is a Protein Coding gene. Diseases associated with CTF1 include Neonatal Stroke and Hypertensive Heart Disease. Among its related pathways are Jak-STAT signaling pathway (KEGG) and NFAT and Cardiac Hypertrophy. The protein encoded by CTF1 is a secreted cytokine that induces cardiac myocyte hypertrophy in vitro. It has been shown to bind and activate the ILST/gp130 receptor. Two transcript variants encoding different isoforms have been found for CTF1.

Application Notes: Optimal working dilutions should be determined experimentally by the investigator. Suggested starting dilutions are as follows: WB (1:500-1:2000), ELISA (1:10000-1:20000).

Storage Buffer: PBS, pH 7.4, containing 0.02% Sodium Azide as preservative and 50% Glycerol as stabilizer.

Storage Instructions: Stable for one year at -20°C from date of shipment. For maximum recovery of product, centrifuge the original vial after thawing and prior to removing the cap. Aliquot to avoid repeated freezing and thawing.
