Background: FHL2 encodes a member of the four-and-a-half-LIM-only protein family. Family members contain two highly conserved, tandemly arranged, zinc finger domains with four highly conserved cysteines binding a zinc atom in each zinc finger. This protein is thought to have a role in the assembly of extracellular membranes. Also, FHL2 is down-regulated during transformation of normal myoblasts to rhabdomyosarcoma cells and the encoded protein may function as a link between presenilin-2 and an intracellular signaling pathway. Multiple alternatively spliced variants encoding different isoforms have been identified. FHL2 (Four And A Half LIM Domains 2) is a Protein Coding gene. Diseases associated with FHL2 include Familial Isolated Dilated Cardiomyopathy and Rhabdomyosarcoma. Among its related pathways are Metabolism and Signaling events mediated by HDAC Class III.

Application Notes: Optimal working dilutions should be determined experimentally by the investigator. Suggested starting dilutions are as follows: WB (1:500-1:2000), ELISA (1:5000-1:20000).
